

The Value of Agricultural Biotech for the EU and the Czech Republic

Tuesday 2nd December 2008, 9.30am to 13.00pm

Radisson Hotel SAS Alcron
Štěpánská 624/40
11000 Prague

- | | |
|------------------------|--|
| 9.00 – 9.30am | Registration |
| 9.30am | Opening speech : Representative from the Czech Ministry of Agriculture (tbd) |
| 9.45 - 10.05am | Presentation : Dr Graham Brooks, Director PG Economics
Subject : The socio economic benefits of biotech crops since their Introduction in 1996 |
| 10.05 - 10.20am | Presentation : Nathalie Moll, Executive Director Green Biotechnology Europe, EuropaBio
Subject : The facts about agbiotech in Europe: Cultivation figures |
| 10.20 - 10.40am | Presentation : Jan Veleba, President of the Agrarian Chamber of Czech Republic
Subject : The Challenges of Czech agriculture: An overview on agbiotech in Czech Republic |
| 10.40 – 11.00 | Presentation : Vítězslav Navratil, Chairman of the board of directors, Rostěnice a.s
Subject : The experience of cultivating biotech maize |
| 11.00 - 11.15am | Coffee break |
| 11.15 - 13.00pm | Round table discussion |
| 13.00pm | Light lunch |

